Testimonials

*You truly make the Gita “user friendly,” and I realize how I already am using the ways of the Gita in my life. Your presence and your presentation
are warm and inviting,
and you encourage us to continue on our spiritual path, even though it may be hard at times.*

—Bev Schultz

*Thank you once again for sharing your wonderful book, workshop and presence with our community. We were all so happy to have you join us. You are a gifted and amazing teacher and have such a lovely way
of sharing your truth.
We were all blessed today with your wisdom, your compassion and your sense of humor.*

Rev. Stephanie Rutt

This book is filled with real-world stories and examples of how ordinary people have found the courage to stand up and do what needs to be done. How ordinary people have discovered that when they speak, live and act from their deepest impulse, truth is served. How ordinary people have fallen in love with that which is the same in all of us and how that experience changes everything.

— from the Preface

Stephanie Rutt's prose is, like the Gita itself, insightful, compassionate and filled with moments of personal enlightenment. If you read this, let it settle snugly in your heart; you will see the extraordinary in every ordinary moment. It is a journey of discovery that begins and ends in your soul.

— GURUCHARAN SINGH KHALSA, PHD, LPHC
DIRECTOR OF TRAINING KRI

For those who truly wish to understand the important messages found in the Bhagavad Gita, Rev. Rutt's book gives us all a clear picture of the life-directing principles of Hindu philosophy. It shows, in an easily understood format, how we may apply these principles directly to our own life experiences. It is a "do not miss" book for anyone who is looking for answers to life's everyday challenges.

— RABBI ROGER AND REVEREND DEBORAH ROSS
DIRECTORS OF THE NEW SEMINARY FOR INTERFAITH STUDIES

REVEREND STEPHANIE RUTT serves as minister at the Tree of Life Interfaith Fellowship in Milford, New Hampshire. She teaches yoga, sacred dance, and mantra prayer, and facilitates spiritual study groups in the Hindu and Christian faith traditions. She maintains a private practice in pastoral mentoring.
